Dedication

THIS YEARBOOK IS DEDICATED TO THE MEMBERS OF THE CLASS OF '46, WHO HAVE SUCH AN UNCERTAIN FUTURE AHEAD OF THEM IN THE POST-WAR WORLD. MAY ALL OF THEIR HOPES AND AMBITIONS BE FULFILLED, AND MAY THEY CONTRIBUTE THEIR BEST EFFORTS IN ENSURING A FREE AND PEACEFUL SOCIETY.

DEAN W. MICKELWAIT, Principal

Although at Eugene High but two short years, Mr. Mickelwait has made himself a welcome fixture in school life. His personality overcomes any hard feelings resulting from a student's being "taken to task." Leaders of various groups have found that contrary to popular conceptions, a principal is the person to go to when their groups are in need of financial or other types of aid. He has supported athletic and social activities wholeheartedly, and has seen that groups needing a "boost" to make their activity a success have had it.

HENRY M. GUNN, Supt. of Schools

In his second year as Eugene's school superintendent, Dr. Gunn has been given a district almost doubled in student population and more than tripled in area. The consolidation of outlying districts with the Eugene system has created many new problems which we know he has the ability to solve.

Dr. Gunn's energetic, radiant personality and his outstanding ability as a speaker makes him a welcome visitor to any student gathering.

CLARENCE HINES, Assistant Superintendent

Students see Mr. Hines around school quite often without knowing his identity. He can frequently be found in the rear of some classroom, a silent but watchful spectator of class proceedings. The duties of the assistant superintendent consist of organizing the teaching curricula for the various courses of grade, junior high, and high schools. Expansion of district boundaries has increased Mr. Hines' work also, and keeps him necessarily "on the go."

Counselors

PAUL POTTER—Vice Principal, Dean of Boys

Mr. Potter's office is almost continually crowded with boys asking his help in solving their problems—and they have many, including girls! He helps boys needing financial assistance in finding a job to fit in with their school work, and recruits workers when farmers send out emergency calls. Added to this is the responsibility of advising the Hi-Y and Axemen's Council, and finding volunteers for the Service Club.

NINA KITTS—Dean of Girls

Miss Kitts also helps students to find work, and is always available when girls have things to "talk over" with their advisor. She is kept extremely busy with the many Girls' League activities being carried on, and during the fall and winter must organize and supervise P.T.A. dances on activity-less Friday nights.

CLARENCE DIEBEL—Advisor to Junior Boys

Mr. Diebel holds the recently-made position of advisor to the junior boys. He must organize their schedules, make certain that they are obtaining enough credits to graduate, besides having all of their other problems to solve. When not cornered by boys, Mr. Diebel can be found drilling chemistry or physics into his classes.

THELMA LANDES—Advisor to Junior Girls

Mrs. Landes is also in a newly-made position, that of advisor to the junior girls. Her duties are much the same as those of Mr. Diebel, fixing schedules, determining credits, and advising students. She teaches English, and has developed a fine group of voices in the Girls' Glee.

TOP: J. Banks, P. Morgan, J. Frydenlund. BOT-TOM: B. Schooling, W. Nicholson.

Student Council

Due to the guidance of Wes Nicholson, we are able to look back on another outstanding year in Eugene High's school government.

The purpose of the student council is to determine the many activities and policies of our student-controlled school in a democratic manner. In each fifth period class a representative was elected to the council. It was his duty to take student problems and suggestions to the council for consideration and to inform his roll room all that was discussed and decided by the council.

The other student body officers were: Vice-president, John Banks; Secretary, Phyllis Morgan; Treasurer, Joanne Frydenlund; and Auditor, Bob Schooling.

Eugenean

Although the staff had, roughly, $1,300 less in its budget than in '45, it feels that it has produced a year-book which is more than comparable to previous year's books. Some features considered non-essential were sacrificed to make room for the more important items, but some innovations were also made. This year has also seen the staff acquire a press camera, which was paid for by a movie pay assembly, and doubly paid for itself through much usage.

The staff was reduced in size by almost half, and this made more work for everyone, but as each did his share, matters moved more calmly than might be expected. To every teacher and student who aided the least bit in the publication, the staff extends its thanks, hoping they like the results of the year's efforts.

News Staff

Since 1914 the E.H.S. News has served as the official news organ of Eugene High, and few preceding years have been so successful as this latest. Under Michael Callahan, editor-in-chief, the News had set several records by Christmas of 1945. Of a total of six papers issued up to that time, four had been six pages long, one had been eight pages, and the Christmas issue was no less than twelve pages. Heretofore no E.H.S. News staff has published more than two six-page issues per year, and never before has any issue been more than six pages long. The Eugene High column in the Register-Guard was also written by staff members.

Except for the editor, who holds his position through all the school year, the staff of the paper changes each semester. Assistant editor of the News for the first semester was Paul Agerter. His successor in the second semester, a junior, is slated to be editor-in-chief for the following school year.

The paper is published every two weeks,

Round Table Discussion

except holiday periods, by the journalism class, under the direction of Miss Juliette Gibson.

All members of the E.H.S. News staff also serve on the Business staff, with other students who wish to serve only on that force. Each advertising solicitor was assigned a regular beat in the downtown business section to be covered for each issue of the paper. Business Manager for the year has been Don Orchard.

FIRST ROW: J. Christensen, M. Flock, I. Lowry, C. Wood, C. Winchester, J. Tourtillott, D. Thoma-son. SECOND ROW: B. Barton, W. Rader, J. Frydenlund, J. Peterson, N. Ashworth, D. Hyde. THIRD ROW: J. Gibson, B. Hammock, S. Turnbull, P. Agerter, W. Young, M. Madsen. FOURTH ROW: M. Cal-lahan, T. Lovelace, H. Boehnke, B. Sullivan.

Class of '46

STANDING: O. Mickelson, H. Wright, V. McHenry, N. Robertson. SITTING: A. Raisanovsky, D. Moll.

With June and graduation rapidly approaching, the Class of '46 paused for a moment in its upward climb to look briefly over the past three years. Some of them have seen the fulfillment of their dreams, and others are slightly awed by the fact that they made it. To all of them these years have been happy ones.

Class officers during that first uncertain sophomore year were Art Johnson, president; Willy Dodds, vice-president; and Harriet Vannatta, secretary. The class gave a sport dance in the spring, the theme of which was "Springtime Swingtime." It was the most successful financially and in attendance of any of the dances held that year.

Its success during that year and the two following is attributed to the able guidance and leadership of its advisers, Mrs. Robertson and Mr. Mickelson. Although their patience was sorely tried at times, they, with the class, weathered the many stormy committee sessions and activities carried on by the class.

Their junior year was one of outstanding success; beginning with "Sadie Hawkins' Week" in October. The next event was "The Holly Folly," the annual Junior Dance, which was held in December. The climax of activities came with the presentation of the Junior-Senior Prom, "Blue Grotto," which was acclaimed to be among most original and beautiful in years. The class was led through this year by Wesley Nicholson, president; Dick Mack, vice-president; Janis McCoy, secretary; and Gene Heany, treasurer.

Then came September, 1945, and the beginning of the senior year. The officers chosen for this period were Dick Moll, president; Alex Riasanovsky, vice-president; Helen Wright, secretary; and Virginia McHenry, treasurer. The Senior Dance, "The Blue Moon," was held in November.

Now the class is looking forward to June 6, 1946, the climax of high school days, and is confident that the future will be as rich with success and enjoyment for them as the past has been.

Junior Class

J. McNutt, Mr. Moore, Mrs. Banks, G. Diebel, J. Carlisle, D. Hanson

Throughout 1945-46 the junior class was outstanding in school activities.

In early December the junior week "Peppermint Holidays" introduced the class to the social program and was climaxed on December 16 by the annual junior dance, also "Peppermint Holiday," which proved a success under the excellent leadership of John McNutt. The dance was an all-school, non-date, sport dance with the Christmas season as its motif.

Following this activity, junior class energies focused on the outstanding social event of the year, the Junior-Senior Prom, sponsored by the class and living up to the high expectation of the student body.

The beauty and color of Mexico filled the eye, while the gay sidewalk cafes of Guadalajara beckoned all present. The Latin atmosphere was further enhanced by the Spanish fountain in the center patio, and the brilliant colors of the entire effect. The quiet lighting, which seemed to transport the dance to a warm, enticing evening south of the border, and the charm of the entire evening made light hearts in all who attended.

The Prom, held May 3, was efficiently managed by Greg Smith and the Prom Committee who worked many hours to make it the success that it was.

With its class officers—John McNutt, president; Gordon Diebel, vice-president; Dolores Hanson, secretary; and Jane Carlisle, treasurer, the class helped greatly in making the year a truly fine one.

It certainly seems with the activity record the junior class has made this year, with the help of Mr. Moore during both years and Miss Greenbaum and Mrs. Banks during the past year, there will be no worry of a poor future in their path.

Sophomore Class

Mighty Eugene High has received another ponderous income of eager young Sophomores ready to carry on its great traditions. This year's sophomore class is one of the largest in the history of the school, and has proved to be a real asset in helping Eugene High go over the top.

The sophs have put through two major functions this year—an assembly on March 1, which was organized and put on solely by sophomore talent; and the sophomore Dance, put on in May to entertain the ninth graders.

The sophomores have also made a good showing in the various school contests, Lavina Rodgers being chosen Queen of the Beaux Arts Ball. A few have also distinguished themselves by earning letters during their first year here—these were John Reed, Jim Douglas and Dean Linder. Of course most of the sophs have gone through the traditional initiations of the many school clubs. Now, as the year draws to a close we see the sophomores, the greenness worn off, ready to carry on as juniors, working to keep the name of Eugene High School near the top for having the best standards and talent among the schools of our country.

Harry Walker Receiving Earl Jones Cup

When sixty-five boys, including eleven lettermen and one regular from last year's team, turned out for the initial practice the chances of Eugene High's making a creditable showing in '45 were rated very low.

Swinging a meaner axe than was thought possible by most, "Kuch's Klan" chopped their way into second place in the No-Name League. Losing, in league play, only to this year's champions, the Corvallis Spartans and during a season of eight games the team lost only two, one to Corvallis and the other loss being to the Black Tornado of Medford.

The opening game of the season was with University High, our little brothers across the city. With their best chance in years for a victory the Tiders' heavy and experienced team bogged down and the Axemen trampled them into the mud to the tune of 26-0.

Next to be led to the block was Springfield, in their first season of No-Name League play. The "Mighty Millers" were promptly trimmed 24-0.

The sore point of the season, which seemed to leave its imprint on the following two games was our 52-7 defeat by Medford's Black Tornado.

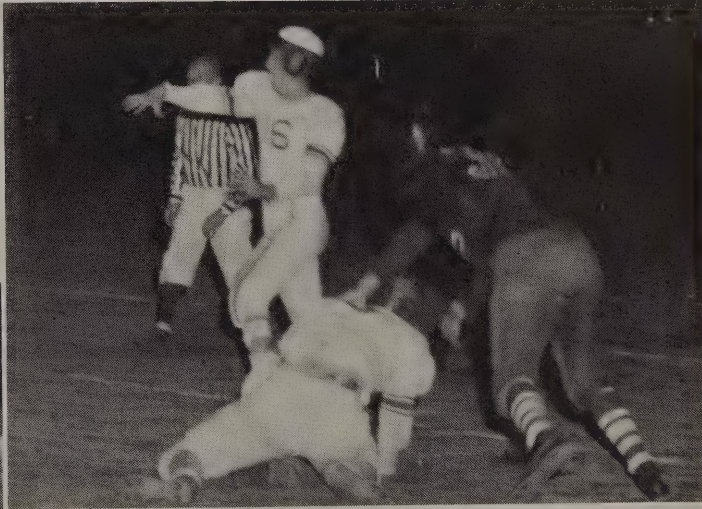

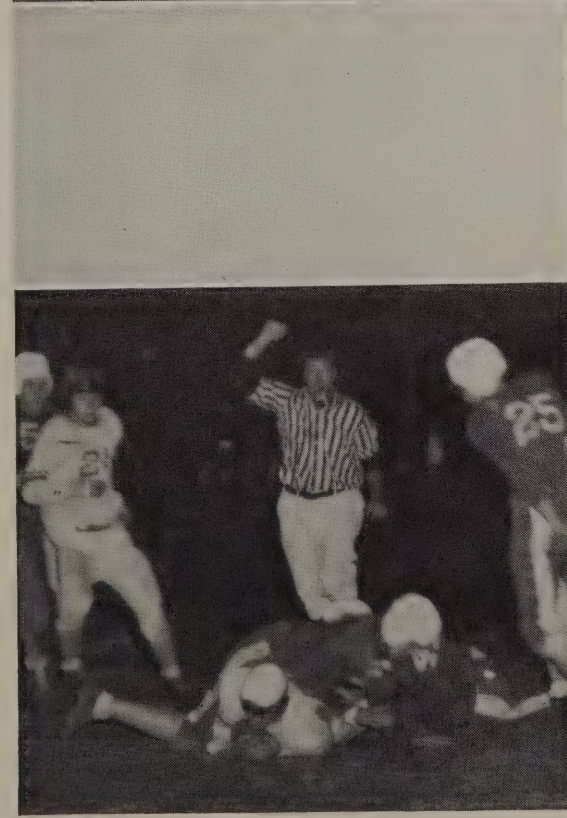

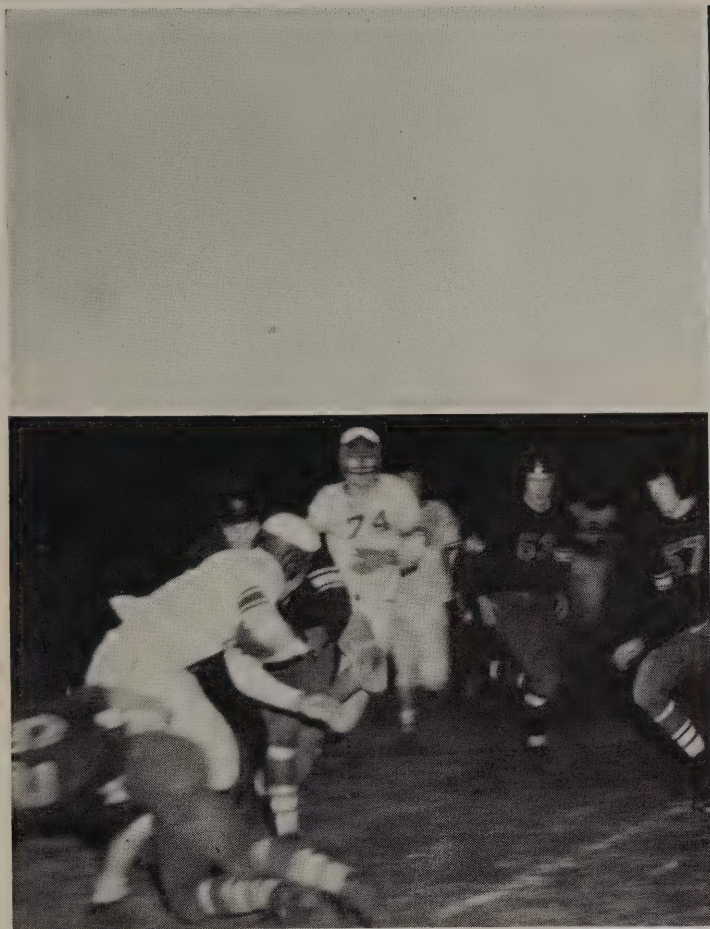

After losing three games the Albany Bulldogs proved they still had teeth and gave the Purple and White a rough time until Eugene garnered the only touchdown in its 7-0 victory.

Still spinning from the Medford twister, the Axemen battled in the Spartan's "Fog Bowl" at Corvallis only to lose a 19-12 tally somewhere on a foggy field.

Following this, the team snowshoed over the mountains to Bend where they came to life swinging a sharper axe, snowing Bend under by a count of 20-0.

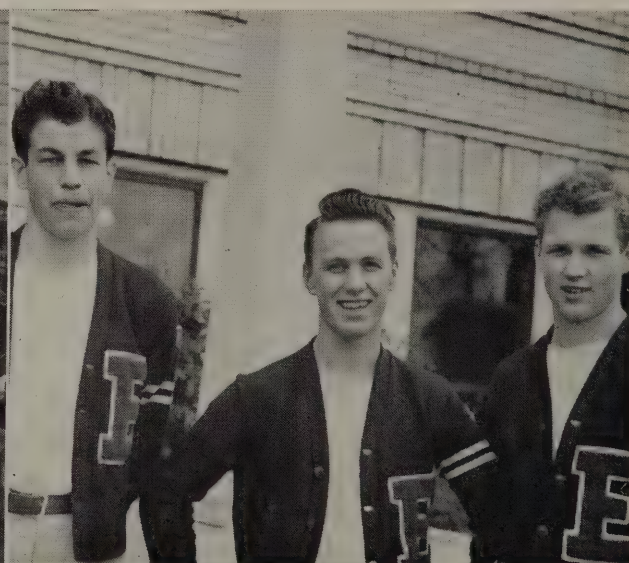

Eugene traveled to Klamath Falls the next week, the home pond of the Pelicans.

"K. Falls" held on to a 13-13 tie until late in the fourth quarter when Eugene surged through for an 5-yard drive that secured a 19-13 victory with only two seconds left in the game.

For the Homecoming game our enemies from Salem paddled up to Eugene with every intention of taking the axe away from us. But the Axemen sank the Viking's boat in the "Civic Stadium Lake", swam off with a 13-0 triumph, and second place in the No-Name League.

State Champs

The Eugene Axemen, under the watchful eye of Hank Kuchera, completed the most successful season in the past twenty years, finishing up with the State Championship under their belts.

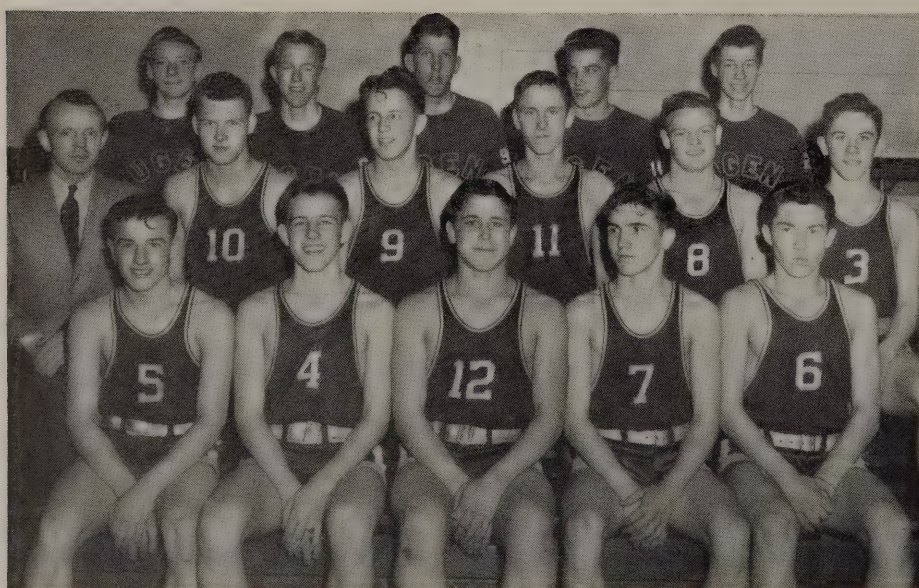

They started as a very green team with one transfer and the rest "B" squad players from the previous year. Although losing many of their pre-season games to powerful teams, as Medford, Washington and Roosevelt of Portland; they gained valuable experience and prestige which paid off in the end.

Together with winning the state championship they won the No-Name league with but one defeat in ten games. This was at the hands of the Corvallis Spartans. The Axemen had little trouble in subduing District Six teams and rolled along with ten straight victories. Significant of their district championship was the placing of three men on the District Six All-star team: Ty Lovelace, Gene Miner, and Ernie Wilde.

Eugene then moved to the State Tournament and met Hillsboro in their first game. The Spartans boasted a center of 6 feet 7½ inches, but the hard driving Axemen could not be held down, and went on to win 47 to 27. Next they encountered the Pirates from Marshfield and fought to a 55-46 victory.

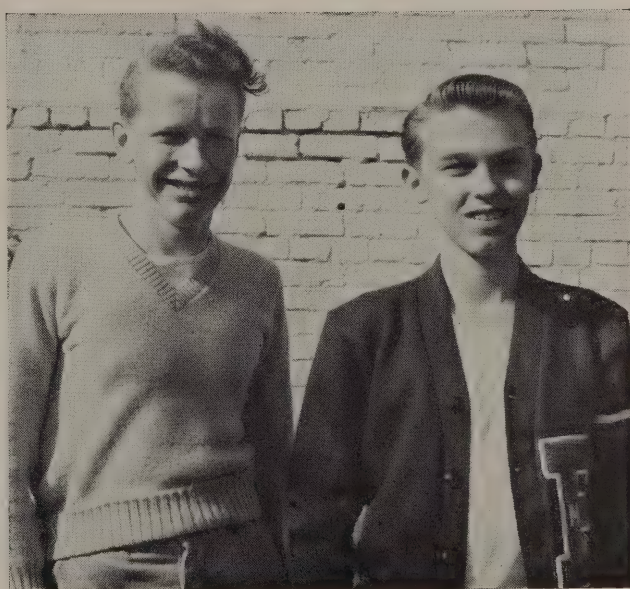

Next was Medford, undoubtedly their stiffest test. They had already been beaten twice in pre-season games. The Axemen trailed all the way, but kept on driving and finally nosed out the Tigers 33-32.

Eugene was now ready for the finals. They were to play Washington, defending state champions from Portland, who had also beaten Eugene in two pre-season tilts. By this time the Axemen had reached the climax of the season and surged on to win the Oregon State Basketball Championship 52-27. Receiving additional fame were Ty Lovelace and Gene Miner who were selected on the All-State first and second teams respectively.

Track

To all outlooks Eugene High should have had a successful track season but considering the deadline, we had to wait to find the outcome.

The initial practices began late in March and the team was set on getting into "condition" for the Hayward Relays, April 19. They were then to take part in two triangular meets with Springfield and University High. Next was the District 6 meet, the qualifying round for the state track meet. Each year two contestants are selected in each event to go to the state meet and in all probability Eugene would have several entrants in this meet. The Axemen would also take part in a Big Six meet which included Salem, Corvallis, Albany, Bend and Springfield.

Returning letter winners were Dan Hendrickson who would run in the 880, throw the discus, and high jump; Gene Rider was also one of the lettermen high jumpers—John Banks, who clicks off the "century" at 10.5 was aided by Gene Miner in the sprints; Gene also puts the shot. Other valuable "thinclads" were Bob Doak, quarter miler and Harry Paulus, an 880 and 440 man. In addition to these fellows there were numerous Sophomores and transfers which made up a fine track squad this year.

Baseball

Ooooooh, What Form!

At press time the outcome of the '46 season was still an unknown secret, but in all probability it will be very successful due to the many returning lettermen. Heading the list will be pitcher, Harold Walker, who played on the Esquire-All-American Boys' Team in Portland last year. Others include Captain Jim Ekstrom, who was shifted to first base and Cal Smith, outfielder in the '45 season, moved to shortstop to strengthen the infield. Pitcher Jim Hanns, infielder Keith Welch, catcher Dick Strite, outfielder Floyd Greene, and utility man Eddie Frolen forming the nucleus of the Axemen "nine." Other recruits included numeral winners of '45 and some promising sophomores and transfers.

The Axemen were to play an 18-game schedule, having a pre-season game with the University of Oregon Freshmen. Games with University High, Springfield, Junction City will make up District Six play. The Axemen were defending Co-Champions of the Big Six League, and played Albany, Corvallis, Salem and Springfield. Out-of-league games will be played with Pleasant Hill and Lebanon.

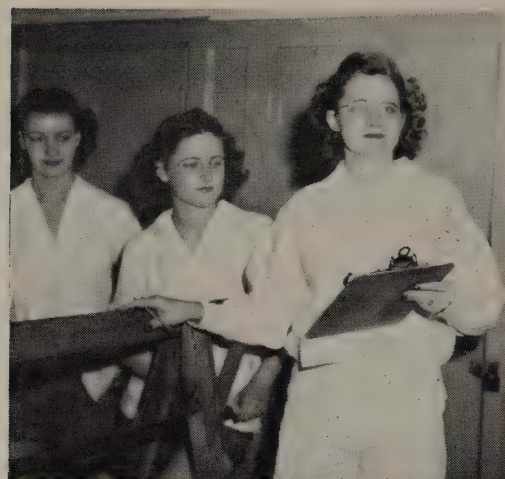

This year's team had its sights set on a chance to play in the Oregon State Baseball Championship playoffs held at Portland University.

Girls' Sports

M. De Vos, Head Instructor

High school girls enjoy participating in sports just as much as boys and although they do not play inter-school games they enjoy intra-class competition.

This year the socker season was fairly short due to the weather but a few hard-fought games were played.

The next sport taken up by the gym classes was basketball. The rules were reviewed and a tournament was conducted in each class.

Later in the year volleyball was started and continued until the good softball weather. In volleyball also, teams were organized and tournaments played in each class.

At the first sign of spring girls interested in tennis journeyed to the University courts where a few good matches were played between showers.

Near the end of the year when the weather permitted softball was enjoyed by the gym classes, again organizing teams and playing tournaments.

The Alpha Chapter of the National Honor Society was granted Eugene High in 1924. The constitution of the national organization recognizes four cardinal objectives as fundamental in all educational practices: Scholarship, Leadership, Character, and Service.

Students are selected for membership by the faculty, the number limited on a percentage basis.

Besides the two formal initiations there were two new activities this year, the study hall committee which took charge of extra study halls and the Ushers Committee which ushered the reserved seats at the football games.

Nineteen Seniors became members during their Junior year, eleven last fall, and fourteen in the spring.

The advisors are Nina Kitts, Clara Blais, Edgar Goodnough, Kenneth Kienzle, Paul Potter and Dean Mickelwait.

Spanish Club

The Spanish Club was organized to promote interest in Spanish as a language and Spanish-speaking countries.

The most important of the meetings held each month was the Christmas fiesta. Mrs. Baker, who took Miss Greenbaum's place as Spanish instructor, was introduced at this meeting. A pinata was broken as in the Mexican Christmas celebration.

Three Mexican movies sponsored by the Spanish club and the Sigma Delta Pi, Spanish honorary of the University of Oregon, were shown: "Grand Hotel", "Maria Candelaria" and "Cuando Quiere un Mexicano".

Officers for the year were: President, Donna Hyde; Vice-President, Betty Chase; Secretary-treasurer, Lillian Melby. There were 75 members in the club.

Inter Nos

The Inter Nos Club was organized to supplement the Latin classes in a further study of Latin culture and its influence on the world of today.

Social and business meetings of the club were held each month. The first social meeting was held at the home of Shirley Finley where sixteen new members were initiated.

With each member contributing twenty-five cents per month, Inter Nos co-sponsored with the French Club a school in France.

Adviser to the club was Miss Clara Blais. The officers were Greta Christensen, President; Alex Riasanovsky, Vice President; Jacque Swanson, Secretary Treasurer; and Bob Mention, Ski Chairman.

Le Cercle Francais

After a lapse of two years Le Cercle Francais was reorganized this year under Miss Clara Blais. Margaret Flock was elected president; Gwen Huffman, vice-president; and LaVerne Watts, secretary-treasurer.

A business meeting and a social meeting were held each month. The first social meeting was held at the home of Margaret Flock. At this time the members of the second-year class were initiated. In January members from the first-year French class were initiated at the home of LaVerne Watts.

The entertainment at the social meetings consisted of French plays, games, and talks by outside guests who had lived in France.

Retail Selling

The Retail Selling class, under the direction of Mrs. Alice Barnhart, completed a valuable year's work including actual selling experience in many Eugene stores. During the first semester its members worked a total of 8,145 hours, earning $4,017. This class is working on a pre-employment and co-operative basis with twenty-nine local retail establishments providing training stations.

Jeannine Prickett served as the class president during its first year's operation, ably assisted by Barbara Bertelson, vice-president, Karen Kuntz, secretary, and Beverly Paulson, treasurer.

Included in the class work was a study of personal development, store-system mathematics, selling techniques, merchandise information, and merchandising. In addition the classes have worked out various counter and window displays using actual store equipment in the room, such as show cases and counters, a cash-register, mirrors, mannequins, and various types of merchandise.

The class is made possible through the George Dean Act and local school funds.

This club has been very busy during the year trying to complete its full schedule of activities.

At the Parliamentary Procedure contest held in Albany, the club won fourth place. Al Ray Jonez was its representative in the Public Speaking contest held in Cottage Grove.

Several basketball games were scheduled with Coburg, Cottage Grove, Corvallis, and Junction City. Although the team did not win all of its games, the players enjoyed playing and meeting boys from other towns.

Cloyd B. Makinson became instructor and adviser to the group after Wendell Gross resigned to operate his farms.

Commercial Club

The Commercial Club, organized this year, is comprised of second-year book-keeping students and the students of transcription.

The officers of the club are: president, Treva Rice; vice president, Pat Lochner; secretary, Betty Hamilton; and treasurer, Doris Maughan.

The club has had several interesting speakers who have had experience in the commercial field and also some movies on office procedure. One of the outstanding social activities of the year was the Christmas party, at which games were played and gifts were exchanged around the Christmas tree.

Girls' League

The Girls' League of Eugene High School is the school's largest organization, as every girl in school is a member. The purpose of the League is to develop friendliness, leadership, and participation in all school activities. It operates through a council which is composed of the officers who are: President, Sally Moore; Vice-President, Patricia McGinty; Secretary, Shirley Finley; and Treasurer, Mary Ann Pickett; and seven department chairmen and their advisors. They are: Financial, Judy Egge.

Pat Hamilton, and Miss Carolyn Woods; Clerical, Marion Bradshaw, Marion Smith, and Miss Gertrude Deierlein; Social, Helen Wright, Jane Carlisle, and Miss Nina Kitts; Auxiliary, Peggy Akers, Shirley Dugan, and Miss Marjorie Chester; Home Economics, Patricia Fisher, Dorothy Krumdieck, and Miss Marion Brewster; Publicity, Nadine Ashworth, Nan Gaveney, and Miss Juliette Gibson; and Special Teas, Marilyn Johns, and Jean Heffernan.

At least one major activity was held each month, alternating all-girl parties and assemblies. Outstanding assemblies during the year were the Axemen's Council assembly, the Style Show and two with speakers. The outstanding social activities of the year were the Christmas party, the May party, and the Print and Cord Week dance.

To round out the social activities, numerous teas were held throughout the year, such as the welcoming teas in the fall, Valentine tea, the Mothers' Tea, and teas held for the teachers every other week.

The Girls' League is a growing organization, as each year the girls work out new and interesting projects and endeavor to carry out suggestions given to them by faculty and students.

Hi-Y

Many services to the school and community were rendered this year by the Eugene Hi-Y club, affiliated with national Hi-Y and the Y.M.C.A. The club held its regular meetings at the Community Center.

The duties of president and vice-president were well carried out by Rich Hopper and Cal Smith. The records of meetings and events were handled by Art Johnson, and the financial details were transacted by Hank Boehnke. Gordon Diebel held the office of chaplain, and Mr. Potter was the adviser.

The club sponsored many social activities during the year. Potlucks and slam sessions occasionally took the place of regular meetings. The members in a body attended several different churches during the year.

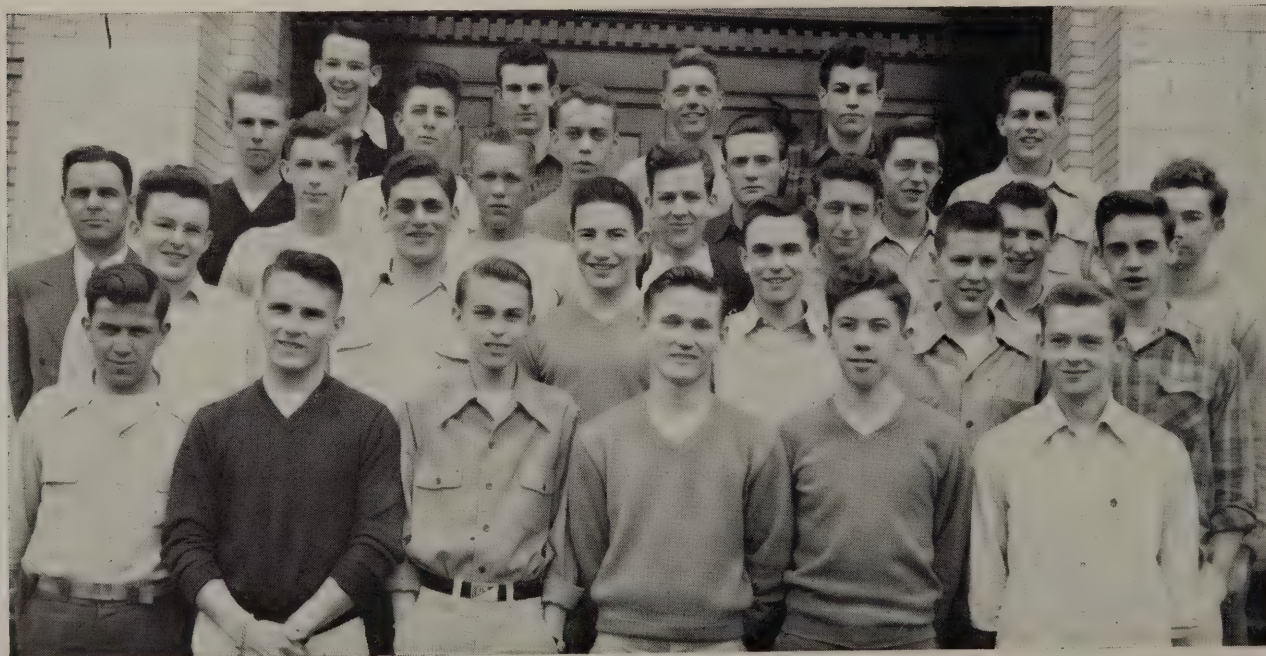

Traditional events included a Father and Son Banquet and a Mothers' Day Breakfast. A picnic and barn dance were combined to take the place of the usual fall dance. An assembly for the student body was produced in the spring and another big picnic was held.

Programs were printed and sold for all of the home football and basketball games. Other constructive activities were aiding the Community Chest and Red Cross drives.

Axemen's Council

ganization was to sponsor Hello Week. The week featured tags, dances, and a welcome party for the "sophs." Another important week arranged by the council was the traditional Be-Up Clean-Up Week. Ground and locker clean-ups and room inspections were held at various times during the week.

The usual number of Axemen assemblies was increased this year. They included several speaker assemblies, and an exchange assembly with the Girls' League. On December 12, the council presented a "Fun Night" for the boys and their Dads. On January 17, the boys presented a hilariously successful assembly for the Girls' League. Noon dances were sponsored by the council throughout the year.

The members of the president's cabinet were: Art Johnson, vice-president; John Quiner, treasurer; Willie Dodds, program chairman; Norman Read, noon entertainment; Ronnie Fraedrick, Hello Week Chairman; and Bob Doak, Be-Up Clean-Up Week chairman. Adviser to the group was Paul Potter, dean of boys.

Under the leadership of Dan Hendrickson, the Axemen's Council had one of its biggest years. The Axemen's Council is an organization composed of all boys in school. Its purpose is the development of sportsmanship and the sponsoring of worthwhile activities for the boys of Eugene High.

Assembly Committee

The assembly committee which consists of representatives of the faculty and student is chosen by the student body president. Its objective is the preparation and presentation of interesting and worthwhile assemblies for the entire student body.

The members of this years committee were Miss Hettinger, Mr. Orme, Mr. Griffith, Mr. Banister, Phyllis Gravos, Maureen Barrows, Jo Summers, Jane Carlisle, Joan Thorsen, Dick Moll, John McNutt, Pat Buzzel, Bob Elspas, and Wes Nicholson, chairman.

Dance Committee

The P.T.A. Dance Committee, consisting of eighteen student members representing the three classes of the high school, and advised by Miss Nina Kitts, dean of girls, sponsored dances in the gym following home football and basketball games and on open Friday nights.

On the nights when there were no other activities the committee arranged for game rooms as well as for dancing.

Invitations were extended to visiting schools too, and intermission entertainment was arranged by the committee for many of the dances.

Activities Committee

This committee is headed by Miss Woods, with Miss Blais and Mr. Hendricks assisting. The two seniors serving on the committee are Shirley Finley and Marjorie Griffeth. The junior who will serve the following year is Joanne Goodlin. The student body president appoints the students.

The purpose of this group is to maintain high standards of leadership in all activities carried on by the student body throughout the year. To pass the committee, one must have average grades in all subjects and hold not more than one major and one minor office.

Tri-Y

In an attempt to fulfill their purpose: "to find and give the best," various types of meetings were held throughout the year. After four open meetings, a get-acquainted party and recognition services were held. In November the members attended the Leadership Training Conference held at the Community Center.

Some of the activities were: Filling Red Cross boxes, aiding the Community Chest Drive, and sending gifts to the Lane County Farm.

Officers for the year were: president, Marilyn Brandt; vice-president, Betty Lou Robertson; secretary, Janice Archibald; treasurer, Dorothy Christensen. Chairmen: Service, Mary McNett and Mary Anne Pearson; Music, Mickey Marshall; Devotion, Weslie Eyres; Social-Program, Jean Heffernan; Publicity, Shirley Wolfe; Junior Board Representative, Sally McKinney.

All members of the Tri-Y are also members of the Y.W.C.A.

Pep Club

The Pep Club is organized to symbolize school spirit and to promote organized cheering at games.

Fifteen Seniors, twenty Juniors, and nineteen Sophomores were elected to the club by all of the girls in roll rooms in the fall, bringing the club membership to a hundred and one. The gay initiation potluck was held on the evening of November 7.

Honoring the football squad, the annual football banquet was given on December 10, with the senior Pep Club girls as hostesses.

A basketball banquet was given in honor of the 1945-46 basketball team, on March 15. Junior girls were the hostesses.

were the hostesses, with Phyllis Hixson in charge.

A combination Pep Club-E Club dance was held on April 26, in the school auditorium. General Chairmen were Phyllis Hixson and Harry Paulus.

This year, the Pep Club added more novelty to the games by electing five members who led the clapping while music was being played. The Song Queens were as follows: Gene Heany, Marion Fuson, Joanne Frydenlund, Lillian Melby, and Anne Collins.

The officers of the club were: President, Phyllis Hixson; Vice-president, Pat Buzzell; Secretary-treasurer, Janis McCoy; and club advisor, Miss Marjorie Chester.

E Club

The "E" Club, after disbanding last spring, was reorganized by a committee consisting of Harry Paulus, Ronnie Fraedrick, John Banks, and Cal Smith. Although losing some of its "mightiness," it gained the school's backing. The purpose of the "E" club is to create a spirit of unity among lettermen and to develop in its members qualities of good sportsmanship, scholarship, leadership and citizenship.

The new policy of the "E" club makes it more difficult because of the pledge a new member takes. Aside from the initiation, the prospective member must maintain a "C" grade average.

Besides the regular meetings every Wednesday, the "E" club sponsored three initiations during the year, a picnic in the latter part of May, a cooperative dance with the Pep Club, and an assembly.

The officers were: President, Harry Paulus; Vice president, Ronnie Fraedrick; Secretary, Rich Hopper; and Sergeant-at-arms, Floyd Greene. Coaches Hank Kuchera and Duane Mellem were advisors.

Office Staff

This year, the numerous and varied duties which confronted the administration department of Eugene High were efficiently handled by a student office staff of fifteen senior girls, together with Mrs. Mellem and Mrs. Banister, secretary and registrar of the school.

In addition to the regular everyday tasks of attendance checking, errand-running, and delivering messages, the girls obtained valuable clerical experience in typing, mimeographing, and filing. The office training course, either a one or two-semester course, was under the direction of Mrs. Mellem.

Library Staff

For several years the Library Training class, offered only to senior students has been very successful. This class, taught by Miss Marjorie Chester, school librarian, is taken during the first semester, after which the students act as library assistants one period each day.

By the 500 students using the library each day, the assistants are often asked the location of reading material. Through their training class they become familiar with the library, enabling them to be of greater service to other students.

In the spring two juniors are chosen to take the course, that they may act as librarians during the next fall while the class is in session.

Debate

The E.H.S. debate teams this year have argued the question of compulsory military training in four major Oregon tournaments. The first of these was at Linfield College, McMinnville, where Eugene took all honors in both varsity and junior divisions.

On March 14, the varsity debaters took the Lower Willamette District Championship, and March 15 saw the Eugene teams tie for second place in the Willamette University tournament at Salem. In the April State Championship meet, Eugene entered the varsity team, which won second place.

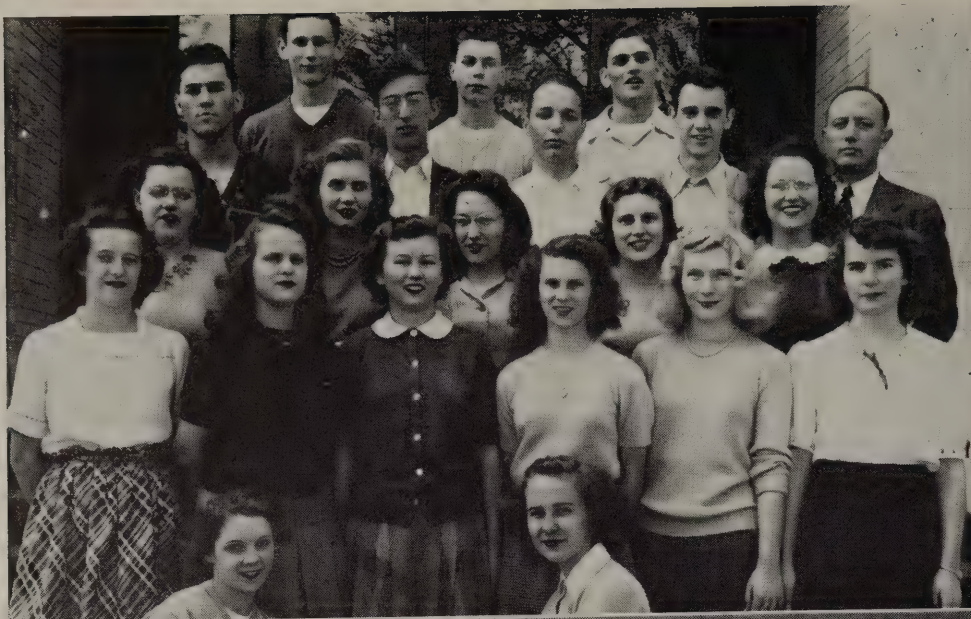

Composing the varsity "split-team" squad were Marge Griffeth and Wes Nicholson, affirmative, and Gerald Harris and Mike Callahan, negative.

Stage Crew

The Stage Design class, under the direction of Robert Banister, has been new at Eugene High School this year. The class was designed to provide a crew to make the settings for the various school productions and also to equip students with a working knowledge of stage properties and equipment. This year has seen many fine sets completed by this class.

The Stage Design class, under the supervision of the stage managers Sid Harrington and Bob Slpas designed and built the sets for the Christmas play and the background for the A Cappella Choir, the plays "Trysting Place," "Ghost Wanted" and the "Shooting of Dan McGrew."

Troubadours

The Troubadours, a new club organized in Eugene High this year, had for its advisor and director Mr. Griffith. The group performed in assemblies, on the radio and before many groups of the community. Highlight of the year was the entrance of small groups and soloists in the Music Contest at Salem.

Officers of the year were: President, Stan Turnbull; Vice-President, Norman Richards; Secretary-Treasurer, Marilyn Johns; Business Manager, Dick Mack; Program Manager, Marilyn Griffith; Publicity Manager, Gwen Cheney.

German Band

The German Band was organized in October, 1945, by Norman Read and met with fine success. The music is typical German music; short in length, fast and snappy.

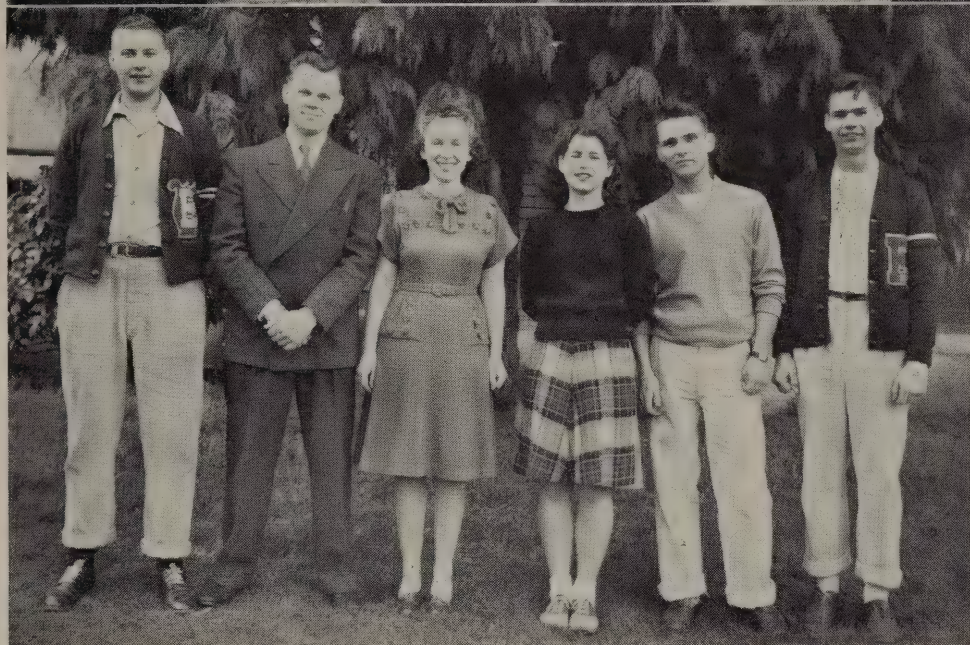

Read, Paulus, and Richards were members of last year's German Band under the leader, Joe Kelsey.

The Uniforms consisted of short, black coats which were two or three sizes too small, red ribbon ties about three feet in length, white shirts and pants, and old band hats.

Service Club

The Service Club is operated for the benefit of the school. Selling tickets at games and dances, taking tickets at games, and assisting in the many odd jobs that must be done around school fill a very busy year.

Officers for the past year were: Doris Churchill, president and Derald Parks, vice-president.

The adviser is Mr. Paul Potter.

Canteen Council

The current Canteen Council has been functioning since August, 1944. It began as a project of the Tri-Y and Hi-Y organizations of both Eugene and University High Schools, but has been broadened to include Springfield.

The representatives from Eugene High are Bob Pickell, Phil Bevans, and Nadine Ashworth. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Banister are employed by the council to assist and advise it.

The main function of the council lies in serving as the student government of the Teen Canteen.

Band

The Eugene High band, under the excellent direction of Doug Orme, has had a truly eventful year. The band played for all of the home football and basketball games this year and made one trip for an out-of-town game, to Corvallis. Besides playing at the games, the band has played at assemblies, pep rallies, parades, for the Community Chest Drive, and it presented programs at the three junior high schools.

They participated in the Eugene High Music Concert which was given this spring, and for the first time in three years, the band went to Salem for the Regional Music Contest.

The officers this year were: Norman Privrasky, president; Leon Herbert, vice-president; Jo Summers, secretary; Gwen Cheney, librarian, and Pete Scarce, uniforms.

Orchestra

The Eugene High orchestra, under the direction of Douglas Orme, had a successful and eventful year.

The year the orchestra met daily during fourth period. These rehearsals consisted of only string instruments. When the full orchestra was desired, the necessary wood-wind, brass, and percussion players from the band were added to the string ensemble.

The programs given by the orchestra this year were as follows: Community Center, Christmas program, junior high school assemblies, spring concert, and the district contest at Salem.

Officers of the year were: Linda Sanchez, president; Mickey Marshall, vice-president; and Lois Williams, secretary-treasurer.

A Cappella

The A Cappella Choir, directed by Glenn Griffith, started a very successful year with 94 members.

The choir presented several programs for assemblies and also sang for various prominent clubs and organizations of the city. One of the year's highlights was the participation in the Spring Concert held March 27, at McArthur Court.

The choir appeared in the music festival the second week in May, and in the Music Contest April 5 and 6 in Salem.

The Choir's officers were: Dick Mack, President; Lila Chapman, Secretary; Joan Herbranson, Librarian; Program Commit- tee, Shirley Finley and Derald Parks.

Girls' Glee Club

The Girls Glee Club was divided into two classes this year, under the direction of Mrs. Thelma Landes. Officers were elected for each semester in both classes.

The purpose of the class was to enable any girl interested in music to participate in group singing and to have a sample of all types of music.

At the Christmas season the Girls' Glee participated in the Christmas assembly and in the Christmas Tree Parade. April 5 and 6 fifty girls from the two classes went to Salem for the state music contest.

Rifle Club

The purpose of the Rifle Club this year was to promote not only shooting accuracy but a thorough knowledge of the mechanism and parts of the gun. In addition to the regular shooting session, different students once a month were held responsible for a short lecture on parts and operation of the gun. A regular pie shoot was held once a month.

Due to a shortage of ammunition some meetings were postponed, but attendance was good on the part of the 25 members.

The advisor for the club this year was Mr. Herbert Armstrong, and the officers were: President, Steve Andrus; Secretary, Donna Gericke; Treasurer, Lillian Steeland.

Pack Rats

As snow fell early in the Cascade passes last fall, the Pack Rats were soon on skis and making weekly trips to Hoodoo Bowl and to the Willamette Highway Pass.

Most of the Pack Rats have joined the Obsidians as junior members, and entered ski meets. Several were taken into the Willamette Ski Patrol and did duty on assigned Sundays at Santiam.

Membership was limited to 30 boys this year. The officers were: Hank Wittwer, president; Steve Andrus, secretary-treasurer. Adviser to the group was Robert "Bob" Lyon.

Girls' Athletic Association

The Girls' Athletic Association, better known as G.A.A. is an athletic club for girls. All girls interested in sports are eligible to join if they enter into the activities, and attend the meetings and potlucks, held the third Thursday of each month.

Sports manager organize the teams and tournaments and keep a record of the points earned by each girl. Lillian Steeland and her assistant Mary Ann Pickett organized their volleyball teams in early winter, and Dorothy Miller and Beverly Rheinsburg conducted the most successful bowling season in the club's history.

A basketball tournament was organized later in the year by Greta Christensen and Dolores Miller, and during the spring softball was the center of sport activities. Separate class teams were organized by Marcia Murray and Phyllis Swartz.

The climaxing activity of the year was the Mother-Daughter dessert at which time the awards were presented and next year's cabinet was announced.

Officers for the year were: President, Georgia McCain; Vice-president, Cleo Wilson; Secretary, Jeanne Marks; Treasurer, Joan Herbranson; and Custodian, Rosemma Carter.

Paletteers

For the last three years enrollment in the Paletteers has increased so that it enjoys the privilege of being ranked among the largest school clubs. Its activities have been various and many such as annual Beaux Arts Ball, fall Barn Dance, spring picnic and parties and potlucks throughout the year. Acting as a club or individually, members also decorate for school and canteen dances, Red Cross work, staging, publish a state-wide high school art class bulletin and sponsor cultural activities such as exhibits.

The officers elected were: President, Joan Thorson; Vice President, Harold Gardner; Secretary, Betty Neely; Treasurer, Phyllis Hanrahan; and Adviser, Robert Banister.

Mask & Dagger

Ghost Wanted?

Mask and Dagger, the dramatic club of Eugene High, began the year with ten members and a new adviser, Miss Ester Hettinger. Try-outs were held, and new members added both first and second semesters.

The first event of the year was an initiation banquet at the Eugene Hotel. Dean Mickelwait, high school principal, was the guest speaker.

Mask and Dagger members, assisted by the regular dramatic classes, presented a number of plays at high school assemblies. They repeated some performances at the three junior high schools.

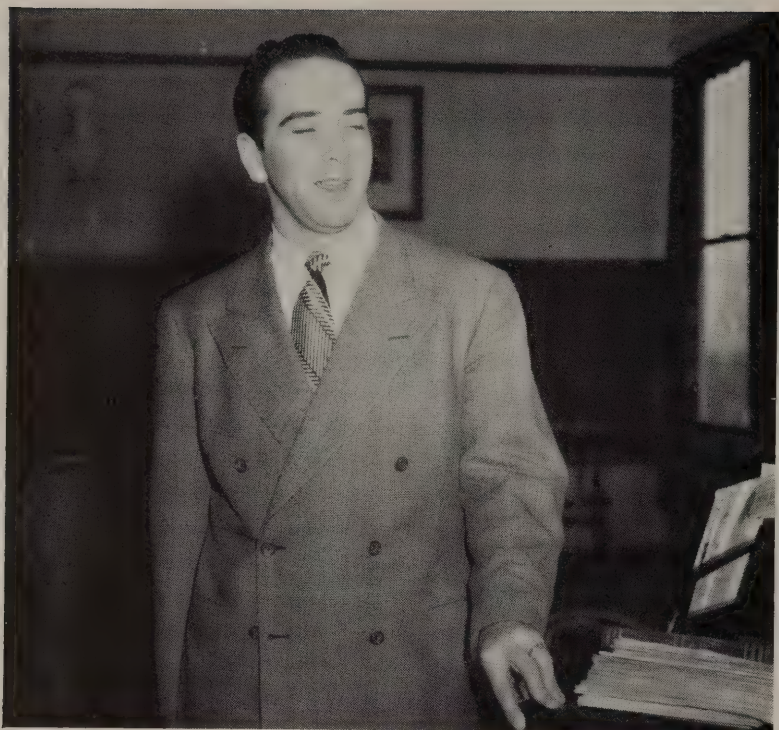

Members also took part in the programs presented over KORE semi-monthly.

In the spring the club presented a three-act mystery comedy "Ghost Wanted" at an evening performance in the high school auditorium.

Ambassadors

II Corinthians 5:20

Organized in late November, 1943, the purposes of the group are to provide Christian fellowship and to forward Christian ideals among high school students at meetings held every Wednesday during the noon hour. The average attendance was about 40 students, representing approximately seven denominations.

The Ambassadors provided an opportunity for all high school students to participate in the programs; the students either took charge themselves, or invited ministers, youth leaders, and evangelists of different denominations, as guest speakers.

Several social events held were: a Christmas party at the Christian Church, the annual potluck, and a group picnic. One of the projects was to distribute to students in E.H.S. book marks listing daily Bible readings to be read between Thanksgiving and Christmas.

The officers were: Dolores Hugus, president; Doris Maughan, vice-president; Betty Chase, secretary; Fred Dodge, treasurer; and adviser, Miss Deierlein.
